

Understanding Swing Falls

Swing falls occur when the anchor is not directly above the location where a fall occurs. Swing falls significantly increase the likelihood of serious injury or death in the event of a fall.

Prior to installation or use, make considerations for eliminating or minimizing all swing fall hazards. Always work as close to in line with the anchor point as possible.

